

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS

Honoring those who served U.S.

R. STEVEN MURRAY

R. Steven Murray is Communications Director of the Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs in Tallahassee, Fla.

The retired Air Force lieutenant colonel provides oversight and direction of the department's comprehensive public affairs program of community outreach, media relations and employee communications impacting Florida's more than 1.6 million veterans, their family members and survivors.

During his Air Force career, he served as Director of Public Affairs at Moody AFB, Georgia; Director of Public Affairs at Misawa Air Base, Japan; Director of Public Affairs with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, Washington, D.C., Faculty Head of the Public Affairs Department at the Defense Information School, Fort Meade, Maryland; and Director of Public Affairs at Headquarters Air Force Recruiting Service, Randolph AFB, Texas.

Colonel Murray, an Operation Iraqi Freedom veteran, retired from the Air Force as a career public affairs officer in 2006 and returned to his home state of Florida to serve in his current position.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in broadcast journalism with honors from the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Miss. and has a Master of Science degree in Administration from Central Michigan University.
