

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS

Honoring those who served U.S.

DAVID MARZULLO

David Marzullo is Inspector General of the Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs in Largo, Fla.

Mr. Marzullo provides the central point for coordination of, and responsibility for, activities that promote accountability, integrity and efficiency in the department. The Inspector General conducts independent and objective audits, investigations and management reviews relating to department programs and operations.

Mr. Marzullo retired from the United States Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) in 2012 after more than 26 years of service. Mr. Marzullo served as a Special Agent and Supervisory Special Agent in Los Angeles and Paraguay, South America, as well serving as the Resident Agent in Charge of the Ventura Resident Office covering a three-county area in California. During his career, he was recognized with two awards for Special Acts or Service; three Administrator's Awards; the Federal Bar Association's Distinguished Service Award; and thirteen Performance Awards.

Prior to joining the DEA, Mr. Marzullo served as an Auditor for the U.S. General Accountability Office. After retirement from the DEA, Mr. Marzullo served as the Director of Public Information and Community Outreach for the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department; and the Supervisory Investigator for the Chicago Independent Police Review Authority, before joining FDVA in 2015.

Mr. Marzullo, who is originally from Chicago, graduated from the University of Illinois, where he was awarded a Public Service Education Fellowship, with a Master's Degree in Public Administration; and Southern Illinois University with a Bachelor's Degree in the Administration of Justice. Mr. Marzullo also holds certifications of Inspectors General (CIG), Inspectors General Auditor (CIGA), and Florida Contract Manager.
